Volunteer Mentor Position Description:

The Volunteer Mentor position is an experience designed for adults who are passionate about deeply connecting with nature, cultivating self-awareness, cultural change, and supporting children to thrive to their highest potential. This unique opportunity provides an embodied experience to practice your skills in leadership, nature-based mentoring, and culture-building. As a volunteer mentor, you will be fully immersed in our outdoor homeschool program one-three day(s) per week throughout at least one fifteen-week session in the school year, with the preference that you commit to a full school year.

The volunteer mentor provides essential support to lead mentors and MITs (Mentors in Training) by building meaningful relationships with children one-on-one or in small groups, inspiring curiosity and stewardship, and helping to hold a nurturing container for learning and growth to occur.

The team of mentors work to create personal goals, engage in self-reflection, and discover opportunities to push beyond their own perceived limitations. They will be constantly challenged to develop deeper self-awareness as they dive into the art of nature-connection mentoring.

The ideal candidate is a passionate, lifelong learner with grounded life experience in fields such as education, parenting, and/or ecology.
